MIDDLETOWN, NEW CASTLE COUNTY, DELAWARE, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 6, 1872.

Select Story.

From Godey's Lady's Book for April.

TWICE AN APRIL FOOL.

BY S. ANNIE FROST.

"What are you doing, Bert?"

Herbert Ireton looked up from his occupation. He had been carefully penning a few lines upon a sheet of paper, and evidently trying to disguise his handwriting.

"Keep that for me, that's a good fellow, and I will tell you all about it."

"Give me your pen and a fresh sheet of paper," replied Mark Leslie, his friend, and in few moments he tossed over the results of his labors.

"Now direct this envelope to Herbert Ireton, Esq."

"Yourself?"

"No. 27 Elm Row."

"Oh! your uncle."

"Now, I will fold and seal this, and then tell you all about it."

"Read it, and see if it is all right."

Dear Sir:—Will you oblige me by accepting a hamper of live game, which I will send to your residence this afternoon?

Yours truly, A. P. Rilfool.

April 1, 1859.

"All right. Do you know my uncle, Mark?"

"I have heard you speak of him as an old bachelor of rather crusty temper, who resides with a maiden sister as cross as himself."

"Correct, as far as it goes. Uncle Herbert, for whom I was named, is not so very old—about forty years of age, and Aunt Mattie is five years older; but they have lived alone so many years that all the milk of human kindness is being curdled in their veins. Sister Amelia and myself have come to the conclusion that it is time they were coaxed out of their seclusion, and, with mother's permission, we are going to try our luck as doctors for the mind diseased. Last month our washerwoman died, leaving a babe seven months old, a pretty little girl, bright and active. Now, alas! the eleventh blessing in the family. Her father has gladly consented to let us have her. Mother and Amelia have made her abundance of clothing, and we are going to pack her in a hamper, and send her to Uncle Herbert. Walt, my little brother, nine years old, is crazy to be the messenger, and, after dark this evening, he and I will carry the hamper, sending the note by mail this morning."

"Sure enough, it is April Fool's Day! But suppose you uncle wont accept his new guests?"

"Mother and Amelia will take her. They will probably have the most care of her, at any rate. Aunt Amelia was always very kind to us, and mother thinks she will be perfectly happy to have a baby to play with. Walt is out-growing jumping-jacks and nine pins. She is always lamenting that we were not to get a girl, and ever since Walt has been twelve he has been lavish of pennies and candies for the young scamp."

"Well, I must get that precious document to the morning's mail, it is time you were off," said Mark, and the two young men walked together to the postoffice.

Elm Row was a lovely home, about five miles from the heart of the city, but easily accessible by stage coach. It was not a very large house, quaint in style, but substantially built, and fitted with every convenience and luxury that could suggest or money procure. The grounds surrounding it were filled with flowers, fruits, and vegetables in profusion. The fancy little stable contained a cow as well as two horses and a family carriage, and the establishment there bore an appearance of comfort that will not admit of words. Let us look upon the quiet scene on the morning when the three characters, Amelia, and Walt, and Aunt Mattie and

The Republican majority on joint ballot in 50. Last year it was 24. The Republicans chose a Speaker on the first ballot, and the Democrats in two.

The Republican majority on joint ballot will be about fifty.

Municipal elections were held in several cities, in Minnesota, on Tuesday. A Democratic Mayor was elected in St. Paul, by 1,600 maj'rity, and the Democrats also carried Minneapolis.

For the Middletown Transcript.

The Wilmington Dailies.

The new dailies are out. The question "which is the best," is answered by the liberal patronage to the subscription list being equal. Their success will be likely if they continue as they began. Too much space should not be allowed for advertisements, as that is what spoils the Every Evening, in one particular.

The last spoken of paper is not as successful as formerly, for its articles now are not such as interest the public, but merly attacks upon more sensible persons than those connected with it. The small news boys seem make light of it by crying "Every Evening, twenty-one for a cent," and many more such exclamations to make persons judge of its unimportance to the intellectual public.

The Commercial still persists in attacking persons and papers that may act contrary to its views. We see the Journal of Tuesday last stirs its memory that there is a whipping-post for such persons as its editors. Why do the Republican daily papers of this city indulge in that unwanton and ungentlemanly manner of attacking many innocent persons of this city and and State? They will lose what little confidence and respect they now have if they do not change their course.

Wilmington, April 5th.

Death of Professor Morse.

Professor Morse, the inventor of the electric telegraph, died in New York on Tuesday.

Samuel Finely Breese Morse, the inventor of the electric telegraph, was born in Charlestown, Massachusetts, April 27, 1791, and was educated at Yale College, where he graduated in 1810. Having from an early age determined to be a painter, he sailed for England with Washington Allston, arrived in London in August, 1811, where he formed an intimacy with C. R. Leslie, and the first portraits by these artists painted in London were likenesses of each other. Mr. Morse, who made rapid progress in his profession, exhibited at the Royal Academy, in 1813, his picture, "The Dying Hercules," of colossal size, the plaster model which he made of the same subject, to assist him in his picture, received the prize in sculpture the same year.

On his return to the United States, having settled in Boston, he met with so little encouragement that he removed to New Hampshire, where he found employment in painting portraits at fifteen dollars per head. He afterwards went to Charleston, South Carolina, where he found more profitable employment, and about 1822 took up his residence in New York. Under a commission from the corporation he painted a full-length portrait of General Lafayette, then on a visit to this country. In 1829 he paid a second visit to Europe, and remained abroad three years. On his return to the United States in the packet-ship Sully, in 1832, a fellow-countryman, Professor Jackson, was describing the experiment that had just been made in Paris with the electro-magnet, when a question arose as to the time occupied by the electric fluid in passing through the wire. The reply being made that it was instantaneous, Jackson recalling the experiments of Franklin, suggested that it might be carried to any distance, and that the electric spark might be made the means of conveying and recording intelligence. This suggestion took deep hold of Morse, who proposed to develope the idea thus originated, and before the end of the voyage he had drawn out the general plan of the system known by his name. On his return to New York he resumed his profession, but he devoted all of his spare time to the perfection of his invention. After much difficulty and disappointment, in 1838, he demonstrated the practicability of his invention, by connecting and putting in operation a model of his "Recording Electric Telegraph," the [illegible] part of the apparatus having been made by himself. In 1837 he filed his caveat at the Patent Office.

A Fatal Quarrel Between Brothers. On last Saturday two brothers [illegible], living on North Eavora[illegible] in this county, got into an altercation [illegible] the elder cut and stabbed [illegible] fearfully; after which he cut [illegible] throat. The younger brother had [illegible] to work for some one of the neighbors, but feeling unwell did not go. When [illegible] came in he asked the reason he [illegible] not gone, whereupon the younger [illegible] was too unwell. Here the elder told [illegible] he was too lazy, and would not work. [illegible] heard brought on another, till at last [illegible] younger threw a chair at his brother, [illegible] it all to pieces. The elder then [illegible] with him for breaking the [illegible], whereupon the younger drew his [illegible] and made an assault upon the other. [illegible] drew his knife, and the bloody work began. The elder cut and stabbed his younger brother fearfully, and then went to the woods a short distance off and cut his own throat, after which he managed to grope his way back to the house. [illegible] entered the door he fell, through weakness, to the floor by the side of the other, where they were shortly after found. The story of both corroborating the above. At the last accounts both were still alive, but no hope is entertained for their recovery.

The Commissioner, Mr. Gunkle, who was some months ago appointed to examine the accounts of Judge Wright, as agent of certain Indians who formed military companies, called home guards, reports that there are vouchers for only about one half the amount received by Wright to be paid to the Indians. This would make Wright a defaulter or embezzler to the amount of over $200,000. The whole case is now in the hands of the Attorney General, with instructions to proceed at the earliest date to prosecute Mr. Wright.

Farm Laborers and Domestics

TO BE SUPPLIED BY THE Middletown Immigration Society!!

THE Middletown Immigration Society having been permanently organized, and having procured a competent and responsible agent, orders for domestics or farm laborers are solicited.

Each member ordering immigrants shall pay to the Treasurer of the Society at the time of ordering, six dollars for each and every man, woman or child ordered. He shall also, at the same time, give to the Treasurer a negotiable note, with an approved endorser, dated February 10th, 1872, payable in sixty days from said date, for one-half the balance; and also a promissory note for the remaining half, payable on delivery in Middletown of the man, woman or child ordered. In case the last note shall not be promptly paid upon delivery of Immigrant, the person ordering shall forfeit to the Society all former payments.

Upon payment to the Treasurer as above farm laborers or domestics of either sex will be delivered at Middletown, with as little delay as possible, who will enter into legal contracts to render service for a year from date of arrival.

Employers will be expected to furnish comfortable lodgings and board for their servants, and, at the end of the year, to give fifteen dollars to each male and ten dollars to each female, whose services have been satisfactory.

Our agent will be specially instructed and will engage to procure only such as have certificates of good character, and have experience in the duties of their several vocations.

All orders must describe particularly the age, sex, services to be required, &c.

For further particulars inquire of

Dr. G. TROUP MAXWELL,
Feb 3, 1872—tf Corresponding Secretary.

GIVEN AWAY!!!

Two Charming and Popular Works of Art!

"Wide Awake" and "Fast Asleep,"

An exquisite pair of French Oil Chromos. The subjects of which are life size and cannot fail to please all who love art or children.

THE publishers of THE CHRISTIAN UNION, being determined that the paper, which bears the editorial name and teachings of Henry Ward Beecher, should have every advantage, on its mission of penetrating into every city and village of the land, sent one of their number to Europe last Spring, to seek for a thoroughly meritorious and attractive work of art to accompany the paper in its canvass for subscribers. Fortunately he succeeded, and entering Paris from the East during its terrific siege and bombardment by the Versaillists, he was able to make a very favorable arrangement with the proprietors of these exquisite chromos by which they are furnished at a rate entirely exceptional, making it possible to

PRESENT THE PAIR, (not mounted,)

to every annual subscriber to the Christian Union at $3; or, mounted, sized, and varnished, ready for framing (the form most advantageous to the subscriber,) at $3 25. Notwithstanding the fact that the regular market price of these beautiful pictures is $10, thousands of them have been sold, and still are selling, in the picture stores. These pretty Chromos can be bought no cheaper now; but can be had FOR NOTHING by subscribing to the Christian Union for one year. They are no common colored prints, but careful copies after paintings by Mrs. S. Anderson, an eminent English artist; printed in oil colors, from fifteen stones, executed by Jehenne, of Paris, and for their size (10½x12½ inches), are equal to any chromos ever issued. A. G. COX, Agent,

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Agt's, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 & 34 Commerce St., N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and morbid deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
